

Charter of MCB values for affiliates and their organisations

All affiliates pledge for their organisations and personnel to:

1. Comply with the laws of the UK, including those set by the Charity Commission or other relevant regulatory body.
2. Uphold good character in all actions and interactions, fostering community cohesion through respectful behaviour including excellent moral characters as per the teachings of Islam.
3. Act with fairness and justice for all.
4. Embrace inclusivity, ensuring equal access, rights, equality, and diversity for all, including women.
5. Uphold integrity by maintaining honesty, transparency, and ethical conduct in all activities and operations.
6. Adhere to the best standards and practices outlined in their governing documents and their regulatory bodies regarding accountability.
7. Establish robust governance systems and policies within their organisation.
8. Ensure consistent maintenance of financial transparency at all times, upholding accountability and trustworthiness in all financial matters.
9. Fulfil commitments to actively promote and support the positive work and initiatives of the MCB, contributing to its mission and objectives.
10. Abide by the MCB constitution and governance protocols.

Declaration from the chair of the organisation:

I confirm that I have read the above pledge and agree to it in principle on behalf of our organisation. This has been shared and approved by all decision-makers in our organisation.
